

Extra copies $1

CITY life

Try an exquisite dining experience

NOBANNO literally means “New Rice”, which in this case testifies to the superb new taste which has just opened up to Christchurch. Nobanno Restaurant opened only 5 weeks ago and offers an exquisite dining experience which educates and entertains the customer with a touch of Bangladesh culture. This bangli restaurant, the first to open its doors in Australasia, features healthy and fresh food. Its fresh herbs and aromatic spices complement the dishes well. Manager Christopher Palma says “many people ask me about my restaurant and how it was created”, and his reply is always “that I’m married to this dream” – this is essential in a successful business.

ADVERTISING feature